Summer Begins

Whoop hoo! Summer arrives this week, bringing with it the sounds of outdoor activities and the smell of fresh cut grass. Ahhhh.... Our focus is on your gardens and making sure they are in peak form for you to enjoy your warm summer days and balmy summer evenings outdoors in comfort and beauty.

We have already begun to experience summer's heat, and again this week temperatures are expected to hit the 90's. Please stay vigilant when outdoors, and watch for these signs of heat exhaustion:

- Heavy sweating
- Faintness
- Dizziness
- Fatigue

- Muscle cramps
- Nausea
- Headache

Without prompt treatment, heat exhaustion can lead to heatstroke, which can be life-threatening. If you are feeling any of these symptoms take the following precautions:

- Stop all activity and rest
- Move to a cooler place
- Drink cool water or sports drinks
