Meet Two New Team Members

In our effort to provide the highest level of service, Rosborough Partners has sought out the top landscape and construction industry talent. We are excited for you to meet two of our new team members that work to meet your landscape needs.

Kim Hartmann

Horticulture Purchaser

Kim's degrees in both Horticulture and Communication from the University of Illinois have guided her through a successful 35-year career that includes garden center manager, landscape designer, horticulture educator, and now Rosborough Partners' Horticulture Purchaser. As a Professional Horticulturist, her passion for all things gardening has led to managing educational and professional development programs for the Illinois Landscape Contractors Association (ILCA), Illinois Green Industry Association (IGIA), and Perennial Plant Association (PPA). Kim also serves on the ILCA Board of Directors, is an Illinois Certified Nursery Professional, and received the 2015 ICNPro Of The Year award. When she's not gardening professionally, she enjoys her own garden, visiting botanic gardens and traveling with family. She loves spending time with her three children and two grandchildren.

Piper Warren

Corporate Controller

Piper joined the RP team this year as Controller, bringing to the company her passion for data analytics and her accounting expertise in the construction industry. She earned her Bachelors Degree from the University of Minnesota, and will be graduating with her Masters of Science in Accountancy from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. In addition, Piper obtained her certification as a Senior Human Resource Professional in 2020, which provides her the ability to do more than "crunch numbers" ... she connects with co-workers on a meaningful level, with the capacity to mentor and coach staff and facilitate their professional growth. Her steadfast care for the welfare of others culminates in volunteering as a wish granter with the Make-A-Wish Foundation. When Piper has free time, she enjoys her two young children, long runs, tennis and the outdoors.
