Meet RP's Award Winning Design Team

If you've wondered how Rosborough Partners' stunning landscapes so beautifully complement each client's home and so perfectly reflect each home owner's aesthetic, well...wonder no more. This is the team that begins the landscape transformation process. Our talented designers listen to the client's needs and desires to create the outdoor environment of their dreams. The goal is always to EXCEED our client's expectation in a way that quite literally transforms their lives by enhancing their outdoor lifestyle.

Joe Haubert

Design Department Director, ASLA, PLA

Joe has an innate ability to connect with homeowners, capturing their vision and lifestyle to create outdoor living space customized for their specific aesthetic and requirements. Joe graduated from Ball State University with a degree in Landscape Architecture and interned at a local design/build company. Joe sharpened his skills designing for a Chicago-based architecture firm and project managing for a company in Dayton, OH before joining Rosborough Partners in 2014. He is licensed in Illinois and Michigan. On weekends you will find Joe traveling to state and national parks, hiking local preserves, or cooking for his family and friends.

Chris Durley

Sr. Project Landscape Architect, ASLA, PLA

Chris' life-long passion for creating beautiful, functional outdoor living spaces has provided homeowners in the Chicagoland area spectacular environments in which to enjoy their favorite outdoor activities for over 30 years. Chris has been honing his craft here at Rosborough Partners since 1994, becoming a member of the American Society of Landscape Architects and the Illinois Chapter along the way. Chris is a Registered Landscape Architect in Illinois, and a graduate of Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Landscape Architecture. When he's not working Chris likes to relax with his children, or you might spot him at one of the many local music festivals.

Taylor Lininger-McLean

Associate Landscape Architect, ASLA, PLA

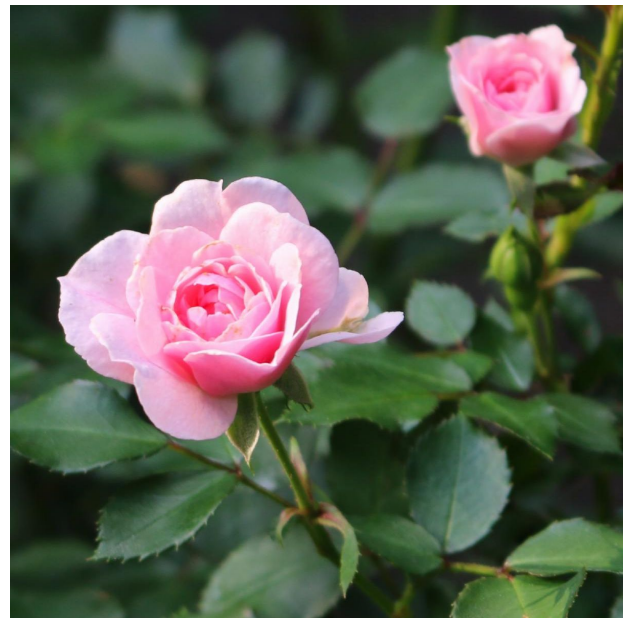

Taylor's goal as a landscape architect is to optimize the quality and creative potential of every one of her projects. She joined the landscape design team at Rosborough Partners in 2016 after graduating with a Master's degree in Landscape Architecture from Kansas State University. Taylor perfects her skills through continued education, earning her license in landscape architecture in Wisconsin. For fun she and her husband enjoy gameboard parties with friends and are currently rehabbing their home.

Erika Plascencia

Landscape Designer

For Erika, the most alluring aspect of landscape design is the selection of plants, which is highlighted in her lovely plant combinations. Erika joined Rosborough Partners in 2021 after graduating from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 2020 with her BLA in Landscape Architecture and a minor in Horticulture. During weekends Erika enjoys spending time with family and friends, playing with her dog and tending to her own vegetable garden.
